WHAT IT IS

Kadaikodi is a cart, catalogue, order and merchant platform for brands, marketplaces and local-commerce operators selling products and services.

30-SECOND PITCH

Commerce teams run five tools that disagree. Kadaikodi holds products and bookable services in one catalogue, computes checkout totals server-side, and turns each order into the dispatch job a worker completes.

PROBLEM WE SOLVE

- Cart, catalogue and orders in different tools
- Services need a second booking system
- Fulfilment tracked outside the order
- Small merchants cannot reach growth capital

VALUE PROPOSITION

- One catalogue for products and services
- Server-computed totals every surface agrees on
- Orders and field dispatch, one spine
- Permissions and audit inherited, not bolted on

IDEAL CUSTOMER

Marketplace operators and multi-location merchants selling products plus services, with staff who fulfil orders

Not a fit: Digital-only sellers with nothing to fulfil
